

Registration ID activation involves a few simple steps:

Open the ScienceDirect Registration ID page at: <https://www.sciencedirect.com/science/register>

- A) In the below box that opens, preferably TYPE in the Registration ID and Registration password in the appropriate boxes and press “Continue”.

Registration ID redemption

Registration IDs allow you to associate your ScienceDirectUser Name with a new organization and thus access features and content to which that organization has entitlements. As a first step, please enter your Registration ID and Registration password below, then click the Continue button.

Note: Adding an association with a new organization will not override or remove associations with existing organizations.

(* = required fields)

The screenshot shows a registration form with two input fields and a button. The first field is labeled "Registration ID:" and contains the text "394584584875x0". The second field is labeled "Registration Password:" and contains seven dots. Both fields have a red asterisk to their right. Below the fields is a button labeled "Continue".

- B) If you already have a user profile for the ScienceDirect platform, you can add remote access to the profile here by logging into this user profile, or register a NEW user profile with remote access capabilities by clicking on the Register Now link.

Registration ID association

The screenshot shows a login form with a "Register Now" link highlighted in a red box. The form includes a "Login using your Elsevier credentials" section with a "Register Now" link and a right-pointing arrow. Below this is a text box explaining that the registration ID allows association with Institutional Accounts and External Users, and that users should login with their existing ScienceDirect Username. The form contains fields for "Username:" (with "User@name.com" entered) and "Password:" (with seven dots). There is a checked checkbox for "Remember me on this computer". At the bottom are "Login" and "Cancel" buttons, and a link for "Forgotten your username or password?".

- C) If you create a new user profile via “Register Now”, fill out the registration form below:
