

BDA International Membership Application Form

The information entered on this form is the basis of your permanent BDA record. Please write clearly using block capitals (small case for emails if applicable).

International member category has been developed to encourage sharing of nutrition and dietetic practice across the world. if you:

1. have undertaken recognised education and training in nutrition and dietetics overseas, and
2. are not currently registered in the UK and are not practising in the UK, and
3. are a full member of a dietetic association recognised by ICDA or EFAD or a member of a dietetic association which has similar aims to the BDA, you are eligible for International Membership.

If you are in this category and you obtain HPC registration to work in the UK you must transfer to the full member category. If you are a UK trained Dietitian working overseas and a full member of the association of the country in which you practise you can retain BDA full membership or become an international member. You need to be aware that International Members cannot vote and professional indemnity insurance/Trade Union support is not included.

When do you wish your membership to commence? (please tick) 1st of current month 1st of next month
