

Support and representation throughout your career

As a busy dietetic professional, it's important you have the necessary professional indemnity cover, union representation, resources, and expert support and guidance from our teams to help you in your everyday practice. Here's an overview of how we represent and support you:

Professional indemnity insurance

Giving you up to £3million per case, but covering you up to £5million per year. As a dietetic professional, indemnity insurance is now a mandatory requirement by the HCPC. bda.uk.com/professional/workforce/insurance

Union representation and advice

Our dedicated Union team provide you with expert representation and advice should you face difficulties in your employment.

Evidence-based practice

Evidence-based practice is at the core of dietetics. The BDA provides a number of resources to make 'finding the evidence' as easy as possible:

- access to Practice-based Evidence in Nutrition (PEN): bda.uk.com/pen
- access to Journal of Human Nutrition and Dietetics (JHND): bda.uk.com/journal
- research pages on the BDA website: bda.uk.com/professional/research
