We invite you to join over 9,000 dietetic professionals in being a member of the largest organisation of food and nutrition professionals in the UK: The British Dietetic Association. Over 80% of all registered dietitians are BDA members, so don't miss out on all this....

Peace of mind

You're covered to practice with our vital professional indemnity insurance up to £5million per year. Indemnity Insurance for dietetic professionals is now a mandatory requirement of the HCPC.

Union cover

Our dedicated Union team have years of experience representing the dietetic profession so provide bespoke representation and advice across any workplace issues. BDA Legal also provides you and your family with a range of useful legal services.

Evidence base to help you as a busy dietetic professional, you have access to huge Practice-based Evidence in Nutrition (PEN) online system (worth £350 p.a.) plus all the latest research from the Journal of Human Nutrition and Dietetics (JHND)

Resources

Access to our 18 specialist groups, plus member-only tools and resources to help in your practice; from online guidance documents and influencing toolkits, to Dietitians Week resources, discounted book series & the Manual of Dietetic Practice.

Keeping you updated

News and updates across the BDA and profession with your monthly members magazine Dietetics Today, our monthly e-newsletters and our website bda.uk.com

One voice

We continue to do a great deal to raise the profile of dietetics, and undertake a range of important influencing, lobbying, campaigning and political activities.

So what do our members say?

“ Seeing dietetic professional bodies in other countries has given me a much greater appreciation of the role the BDA plays in the UK. ”

“ The peace of mind of having BDA union representation should I need it is a huge benefit to me. ”

“ I like the idea of supporting the profession as a whole & being represented by a professional body in the public eye. ”

“ Returning to the profession after a 5 year break and the resources/ support has been invaluable. ”

“ The specialist groups are fabulous opportunity to keep up to date and are by far the best resource for me. ”

“ I love PEN . It's my 'Go-to' place when I search for evidence, especially to promote dietetic work. ”
