- c) that we have been able to carry out our functions without any such interference as would make it reasonable for any person to call our independence in relation to the union into question.

We have examined the register of names and addresses of the members in accordance with Section 49(3) at our own instance and no matters were revealed which should be drawn to the attention of the union. We were not requested by any member or candidate to inspect or examine a copy of the membership register.

Democracy Technology Ltd (Mi-Voice) was appointed under Section 51A to carry out the distribution of voting papers for the election.

Democracy Technology Ltd (Mi-Voice) was appointed under Section 51A to carry out the storage and counting of voting papers for the election.

Your attention is drawn to sections 52(4), 52(5), and 52(6). Section 52(4) requires that a copy of this report be published and made available to all members of the union within a three month period from today. This does not, however, mean that every member must be notified individually.

Yours sincerely,

Lauren Evans
