

The British Dietetic Association volunteer position – Sponsorship Officer

Role Sponsorship Officer
Aims/Objectives of the Branch <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To act as a source of communication between the BDA and local members.</li> <li>• To provide a forum for Dietitians to meet on a regular basis.</li> <li>• To provide educational opportunities to Dietitians to support Continuous Professional Development.</li> <li>• To promote the sharing of information and examples of best practice.</li> <li>• Promote the role of the BDA in the North West North Wales region, including recruitment and retention of members.</li> </ul>
What this post has to offer By becoming involved with a BDA Branch you will have the opportunity to pursue your dietetic interests and gain practical experience. This role is key to meeting the main objectives of the Branch by arranging study days and CPD events. Through this position you will gain organisation, event management, negotiation and project management skills, which can translate directly into career development. It will also give you an opportunity to work with colleagues and corporate contacts across the region, sharing knowledge and skills.
Main tasks/responsibilities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Responsible for securing partnerships and sponsorships for Branch activities.</li> <li>• Work with the Branch Treasurer and Meetings Organiser to ensure that the required amount of income is secured to deliver financially viable events and projects.</li> <li>• Managing the relationship with partners and sponsors prior, at and after Branch events/projects.</li> <li>• Work closely with the BDA Partnerships and Sponsorships Officer.</li> </ul>
Level of commitment Committee meetings are held up to xx times a year, plus a varying and flexible amount of work in between times. The Branch aims to hold xxx events for members, one will include the Annual General Meeting. The Meetings Organiser is elected to the role for a two year term of office and should serve no more than two consecutive terms of office. However you can give reasonable notice to end your volunteering if you are no longer able to fulfil your role.
Main times of volunteering Committee meetings are usually held on evenings and can be arranged by teleconference, if required. Branch events usually take place during evenings and weekends.
Training and support offered <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The BDA has a designated member of staff supporting Groups and Branches in the delivery of their work. Individualised support can be offered to suit the member.</li> <li>• The BDA Partnership and Sponsorship Officer can provide advice, templates and guidance.</li> <li>• Branch Handbook, templates and resources.</li> <li>• Individual induction, handover and training at convenient location and time for you.</li> <li>• Participation at the Groups and Branches networking day (held once a year).</li> </ul>